Important!

- Please include all banknote pieces, even the smallest of pieces. Heavily mutilated banknotes (e. g. charred or burnt banknotes) should be carefully packed so as to prevent further damage.
- Please let us know if the money has come into contact with harmful or allergenic substances and provide us with details regarding the nature and the potential threat of the substances. Pre-marked banknotes should be placed in individual film pockets.
- To ensure proper processing of the application, you are required to provide full details of the cause of damage and explain the whereabouts of the missing parts in detail. In providing detailed information and explanations, you will avoid having to answer further questions and therefore unnecessary time and effort in processing the application. A separate sheet may be used if necessary.
