

■ Frontiers in Central Banking – Past, Present and Future

14 June 2017

Venue: Hilton Hotel

Hochstraße 4, 60313 Frankfurt am Main, Germany

9.30–10.00	Registration
10.00–10.30	Welcome address: Jens Weidmann (President of the Deutsche Bundesbank)
10.30–12.00	Policy Panel 1: Benefits and boundaries of unconventional monetary policy Panelists: – Masaaki Shirakawa (Aoyama Gakuin University, Governor of the BoJ from 2008–2013) – Jean-Claude Trichet (Bruegel, President of the ECB from 2003–2011) – Axel A Weber (UBS, President of the Deutsche Bundesbank from 2004–2011) Moderator: Volker Wieland (Goethe University Frankfurt)
12.00–13.30	Lunch
13.30–15.00	Policy Panel 2: Who is willing to act? Passing on the hot potato of policy intervention Panelists: – Jaime Caruana (Bank for International Settlements) – Christine Lagarde (International Monetary Fund) – Mario Monti (Bocconi University) Moderator: Barry Eichengreen (Berkeley University)
15.00–15.30	Coffee break
15.30–17.00	Policy Panel 3: How do new technologies shape the future of central banking? Panelists: – Claudia M Buch (Deutsche Bundesbank) – Blythe Masters (Digital Asset Holdings) – Ravi Menon (Monetary Authority of Singapore) – Cecilia Skingsley (Sveriges Riksbank) Moderator: Stephen Cecchetti (Brandeis International Business School)
17.00	Concluding remarks: Otmar Issing (Center for Financial Studies)