Conference on

Regulating Financial Markets

to be held at House of Finance, Goethe University, Frankfurt, Germany, 26 – 27 August 2019.

The organizing committee invites submissions of high-quality theoretical or empirical research papers on regulation of financial markets. The conference calls for papers from finance, economics and law especially covering topics on the link between financial intermediation and regulation, including (but not limited to)

- the effects of financial market regulation on the real economy
- the impact of regulation on competition among banks and other financial institutions
- the market entrance and exit of financial institutions
- the coordination of supervision and regulation
- the political economy of financial regulation
- the relevance of digitization for financial markets and their regulation

The dinner speech will be given by Felix Hufeld (President of the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority – BaFin). The keynote speakers will be Antoinette Schoar (MIT and CEPR) and Viral Acharya (Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank of India, New York University and CEPR).

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: 31 Mai 2019

To submit a paper, send an e-mail with your submission to banking-research@bundesbank.de with reference to “Regulating Financial Markets”. Economy travel and accommodation (subject to limits) for all invited speakers and discussants will be covered.
