Conference on

Regulating Financial Markets

to be held at Frankfurt School of Finance & Management, Frankfurt, Germany, 22 – 23 August 2022.

The organizing committee invites submissions of high-quality theoretical or empirical research papers on regulation of financial markets. The conference calls for papers from finance, economics and law especially covering topics on the link between financial intermediation and regulation, including (but not limited to)

- the effects of financial market regulation on the real economy
- the impact of regulation on competition among banks and shadow banks
- the use of big data and machine learning in financial regulation
- the economics of climate change
- the political economy of financial regulation
- the relevance of digitization for financial markets and their regulation

The dinner speech will be given by Roland Koch (former Minister President of the German state of Hessen). The academic keynote speakers will be Itay Goldstein (Wharton School) and Manju Puri (Duke University).

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: 15 May 2022

To submit a paper, send an e-mail with your submission to banking-research@bundesbank.de with reference to “Regulating Financial Markets”. Economy class travel and accommodation (subject to limits) for all invited speakers and discussants will be covered.
