

Mr. MU Changchun, Director-General of the Digital Currency Institute, the People's Bank of China

Mr. MU Changchun is appointed Director-General of the Digital Currency Institute, People's Bank of China in July, 2019. Mr. Mu joined the People's Bank of China in 1995. From 1995 to 2004, he worked for the International Department and his responsibilities covered multilateral and bilateral cooperation and coordination with international organizations and foreign central banks. From 2004 to 2006, he was appointed as Senior Advisor to the Executive Director of the Constituency Office, representing Canada/China /Korea/Kuwait/Spain in the African Development Bank. In 2006, He rejoined the International Department. From 2010 to 2020, he served in a number of positions, including Assistant to the Governor and then the Deputy Director-General of the Executive Office, and the Deputy Director-General of Payment & Settlement Department. Mr. MU is a member of CPMI, a member of FSB Financial Innovation Network, and also a member of IMF High-level Advisory Group on Finance and Technology. Mr. Mu graduated from Renmin University of China with a BA in Economics in 1995 and earned his Master's degree in Applied Finance from Macquarie University, Australia in 2000.